October 2019

Future Generation Youth Center Activity Calendar

Houghton Park is offering twelve weeks of free graphic design classes in the art of digital media, web design and traditional design. The focus of the class is to develop self creativity and build a digital resume as well as web resume.

Students will have the opportunity to design a digital portfolio, magazines, flyers, banners, and much more.

Participants are eligible for service learning hours .

TechZone students are taught Adobe Photoshop, Premiere, After Effects, Adobe Lightroom, Adobe Audition, and Photography in a hands-on work shop to better understand what each software will produce and combine to create a work of art.
